

12th International Conference for Neurons and Brain Disease

Hosted by Prof. Ferdinando Nicoletti

October 7-9, 2017

The city is of Greek origin, it has also a historical and cultural baggage thanks to the several dominations that it has endured. Taormina constitutes a virtue for the entire island because it knows to offer to the possible visitors of the valid cultural, historical, social and folkloristic cues indeed interesting.

Conference Centre

Grande Albergo Capotaormina

Overlooking the stunning coastline the four-star Grand Albergo Capotaormina decor is designed to blend in with its idyllic natural surroundings, with a spectacular panoramic views of the Mount Etna, the bay of Giardini Naxos, the Tyrrhenian Sea and of the Cap Sant'Andrea.

This elegant Grand Albergo Capotaormina is situated on a picturesque peninsula overlooking the Tyrrhenian Sea, is built on several levels. Situated between Taormina and Giardini Naxos, this hotel is only 3000 meters from the city centre of Taormina.

Via Nazionale, 105
98039 Taormina (ME) – Italy

